Summary/Highlights: The County Council unanimously directed staff to develop an ordinance requiring addressing of properties that abut the Atlantic Ocean at the May 2, 2023, meeting. Council member Reinhart identified a concern that tourists and other visitors to our beach would not be able to communicate their location to emergency responders while on our beach. The goal is to have the addresses of the beachfront homes, businesses and condominiums visible to beachgoers so that they can convey their location to emergency responders. The proposed ordinance is applicable only to unincorporated properties under Volusia County's jurisdiction. The County staff contacted the staff from the cities of Ormond Beach, Daytona Beach, Daytona Beach Shores, Ponce Inlet and New Smyrna Beach so they were aware of this effort and to see if this is a policy they wish to implement in their jurisdiction. There was interest by the staff from the coastal cities to implement similar requirements in their jurisdiction. County staff believes that several of these coastal cities will have similar standards implemented within their jurisdiction.

Pursuant to F.S. Section 125.66(3), the county staff prepared a business impact estimate regarding the cost of compliance, any revenue to the county and how many businesses are impacted by the proposed change. The County staff made a conservative estimate of $150 per building for the cost of the material and installation of the address on the rear of the properties. However, compliance with this section may be achieved through a painted stencil on a seawall or structure. A review of the area reflected that there are approximately 71 properties in the unincorporated areas along coast of the Atlantic Ocean that are condos, hotels or other non-residential uses. There is no revenue projected since the county will not be requiring any fees for the installation of the addresses on the properties.

The compliance date will be within 120 days of the effective date of the ordinance. The county will be implementing a public information campaign to notify property owners of the new requirements for posting of the address on the rear of the property. Code enforcement will be following-up after the 120-days and will focus on education and dissemination of information prior to taking any formal proceedings to the Code Enforcement Board.

This ordinance was advertised on November 22, 2023. The Business Impact Estimate for this ordinance was posted on the County website on November 14, 2023.

 - c. Section 553.73, Florida Statutes, relating to the Florida Building Code; or
 - d. Section 633.202, Florida Statutes, relating to the Florida Fire Prevention Code.

In accordance with the provisions of controlling law, even notwithstanding the fact that an exemption noted above may apply, the County hereby publishes the following information:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals and welfare):

The Volusia County Council received reports of potential delays of reaching persons in need of emergency assistance on the beach due to tourists and visitors to the Volusia County beaches being unable to guide first responders to locations of emergency situations. Therefore, the Volusia County Council determines that it is in the best interest of the public health, safety, and welfare of the County to require addresses on the rear of properties or buildings adjacent to the Atlantic Ocean to assist with emergency response to activities on the beach.

2. An estimate of the direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the County, if any:

(a) An estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur; Estimate of $150 for the purchase of the material and labor to install the required addresses on the rear of buildings with oceanfront access.

(b) Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance or for which businesses will be financially responsible:
The County will not be charging a fee.

(c) An estimate of the County's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs.
There are not any revenues since there will not be any charges or fees.

3. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

Most the property abutting the ocean in unincorporated Volusia County are single-family residential. There are areas in Ormond by the Sea, Wilbur by the Sea and Silver Sands where there are some hotels and condominiums that account for approximately 71 parcels. This provides a reasonable estimate of the number of "businesses" in the unincorporated areas impacted by the proposed ordinance.

4. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):

[You may wish to include in this section the methodology or data used to prepare the Business Impact Estimate. For example: County staff solicited comments from businesses in the County as to the potential impact of the proposed ordinance by contacting the chamber of commerce, social media posting, direct mail or direct email, posting on County website, public workshop, etc. You may also wish to include efforts made to reduce the potential fiscal impact on businesses. You may also wish to state here that the proposed ordinance is a generally applicable ordinance that applies to all persons similarly situated (individuals as well as businesses) and, therefore, the proposed ordinance does not affect only businesses].

The recent storms (Ian and Nicole) provided a real-world situation where accuracy in reporting of emergency situations to responders was paramount. It is the goal to of this ordinance to minimize potential confusion on the location of emergencies occurring in front of these oceanfront properties.
