ORDINANCE No. 2552-2026; AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF STUART, FLORIDA AMENDING THE CITY'S LAND DEVELOPMENT CODE CHAPTER II – ZONING DISTRICTS USES ALLOWED, DENSITY, INTENSITY, SECTION 2.06.00. – SUPPLEMENTAL USE STANDARDS TO ADD A NEW SECTION 2.06.24. Summary Explanation/Background Information on Agenda Request:

Background

On February 23, 2026, the City Commission directed staff to prepare the necessary ordinance to allow backyard chickens within certain residential zoning districts.

The City Commission recognizes a growing trend toward sustainable living practices, including the desire to incorporate fresher, locally sourced products into daily diets. Additionally, there is increasing interest in providing residents with opportunities to engage in small-scale, backyard food production. Allowing a limited number of chickens on residential properties supports these objectives by enabling property owners to produce eggs for personal consumption.

The proposed amendment would permit the keeping of up to four (4) chickens as an accessory use on occupied, detached single-family and duplex properties within the R-1A, R-1, R-2, Urban Neighborhood, and Single-Family Detached (SFD) zoning districts within the East Stuart Neighborhood. This use would be subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the attached draft ordinance.

CRB Recommendations

On May 5, 2026, the Community Redevelopment Board (CRB) held a public hearing and recommended approval to the City Commission with the following recommendations:

- Consider a hedge in lieu of a fence.
- Increase the height of the chicken coop to seven (7) feet.
- Consider a five (5) foot fence in lieu of a six (6) foot fence.

LPA Recommendations

On May 14, 2026, the Local Planning Agency (LPA) held a public hearing and recommended approval for the City Commission with the caveat that the City Commission consider a annual fee in lieu of a permit of $65.00. Additionally, the LPA recommended a yearly license renewal fee of $10.00.

  3. In order to obtain a permit under this section, any person(s) applying for a permit for the keeping of chickens must show that they can meet the requirements of this section by providing a site plan drawn to scale, showing the following:
    - a. Property size with dimensions;
    - b. Location of existing and proposed structures on the property;
    - c. Existing easements or land restrictions on the property; and

Exploring the Possibilities of Backyard Chickens Locally

Did you know that the chicken has come a long way from the plains of Southeast Asia some seven to ten-thousand years ago, to a sacred animal to the Romans, and finally to household food and agricultural product in modern times?

Chickens, thought to be the first animal domesticated, now are found practically everywhere. They are a great, cheap source of protein for both their meat and eggs, relatively easy to care for, and make enjoyable pets and show animals. You can even raise chickens in small backyard or urban spaces. Chickens are great for the family, and children can easily care for and raise them. Children can learn many life skills while raising a chicken, as well as many STEM competencies like vet science, anatomy, genetics, nutrition, sustainability, etc.

Because of the versatility of these animals, it is easy to see why they are increasingly popular with backyard or hobby farmers. COVID-19 caused many of us to try new hobbies and to be more thoughtful about our food sources, so raising chickens may seem like an easy answer to both boredom and localizing your food. Make sure to do your research before getting a bird or a flock. They do require work, even if they are easier than some other animals to care for. Below you will find some topics to research before making chickens a part of your life. This will help you and the chickens live happy, healthy, and productive lives!

Before making that chicken purchase, you should do research.

Space and equipment needed

- The size of the coop is based on a minimum of 3 square feet of floor space per bird. For backyard flocks of five birds, you will need 15sq of floor space.
  - Coop– a house which provides shelter and protection from the elements and predators. A minimum three-sided roofed area for the birds to seek shelter from poor weather conditions and a place to roost safely at night is required.
  - Run– protected open area for the birds to safely roam. The run should be securely lined with fencing which is predator proof. Examples such as chicken wire or hardware cloth 1/2in mesh is sufficient. The run should also have either a roof or wired top, to prevent birds from flying out of the coop or predators climbing or flying inside.
    - When starting your chicks from hatchlings it is important that chicks are kept in a draft free environment and provided with a heat source. The first week of life the heat source should provide a constant temperature of 95°. Heat needs to be provided to the chicks until they are four weeks old. Over the four weeks the temperature can decrease by 5°F each week.

- Week 1- 95°F

- Week 2- 90°F

- Week 3- 85°F

- Week 4- 80°F

Backyard poultry laws for your area

- Check county and municipality laws, sometimes cities have different restrictions than the county.
  - Laws often tell you the number of chickens, coop size, licensing, vaccines, and processing regulations.
  - St. Lucie County Ordinance Sec. 7.10.03- Backyard chickens
https://library.municode.com/fl/st.\_lucie\_county/codes/land\_development\_code?nodeId=CHVIIDEDEIMST\_7.10.00SUST\_7.10.03A
NREDI
- Be a courteous neighbor by letting them know about your chickens, which can help reduce any noise or code complaints.
  - Consider offering eggs as a peace offering (if the laws allow that).
- If your city or county doesn't have laws about backyard poultry, advocate for them!
  - Resources for this here: Backyard-Chickens-Advocacy-Guide.pdf

(communityfoodstrategies.org)

How to choose your flock

- Before choosing a breed, determine what the purpose of the chickens will be raised for; meat, egg, pets, 4-H project, or breeding improvement. Once determined, find a breed which will suite your purpose.

- Environmental Conditions are important to consider because depending on where you live will determine what breed of chicken you will need for your flock. If you live in South Florida, you will want to look for a heat tolerant breed.
- Knowing your flocks' purpose will also help determine where to purchase your bird(s).
  - No matter where you purchase your chickens from local farm store, commercial breeder, backyard chicken breeder, 4-Her, or incubate them yourself you need consider the overall health of the bird. You want to bring a healthy bird(s) into your flock.

Common problems

- Establish a Veterinarian who works with poultry. Just like any animal in your household, you want your chickens to also have a Veterinarian who can attend to their needs for yearly visits or in case of an emergency. Establish one before there is an emergency.
  - Pests, like mites, are common in chickens. Make sure to do your homework on preventions and treatments.

- Predators like racoons, rats, coyotes, and feral cats can injure or kill your birds. Take precautions to build predator-proof housing.
- Chickens can transmit diseases to humans such as Avian Influenza (Bird Flu), E. Coli, and Salmonella. It is important for you to understand the signs and symptoms and what to look for within your flock.
- Vaccinating your flock is determined on the probability of the flock being exposed to certain diseases.
  - Closed flock (no new birds enter, and no leaving birds return): Chances of exposure to a disease decrease.
  - Open flock (new birds frequently come into the flock, birds are taken off the property to a show or exhibit): Probability of disease exposure increases.
  - The use of your flock will determine the need for vaccines.
    - UF/IFAS Extension has great resources on all of these topics here:
https://edis.ifas.ufl.edu/topic\_backyard\_flocks

Laws and best practices surrounding eggs, meat, and food safety

- In Florida you cannot sell eggs without a Limited Egg/Poultry Permit.
- Some ordinances prevent backyard chicken products from being sold, so check these too.
- Research and decide how to clean and store your eggs.

- If raising meat birds, verify the laws for processing your animals.

Getting involved in the chicken community

- Youth: 4-H Poultry Projects, embryology, local fairs, FFA etc.
  - Embryology projects are a great way to learn about the full life cycle of a chicken!
    - We offer the 4-H Embryology Program to our local schools. So if your interested in adding this program to your classroom, contact your 4-H Agent.
- Adults: Check out Extension poultry resources in your county by reaching out to your Livestock, Agriculture, or 4-H Agent.
- Everyone: Join chicken groups on Facebook, review the UF/IFAS Resources: https://edis.ifas.ufl.edu/topic\_backyard\_flocks here, and contact your local Extension office with any questions or to get involved in 4-H!
